

Burt Bacharach and Hal David

This is a dream course!

Here we have two creative geniuses, whose music and lyrics have touched literally everyone. Whether you enjoyed Perry Como's "Magic Moments," B.J. Thomas' "Raindrops Keep Falling on My Head," Dionne Warwick's "What the World Needs Now," Tom Jones' "What's New Pussycat?" or Bacharach's personal favorite, "Alfie," you are a Bacharach/ David fan. Their list of enjoyable songs is almost endless. More so, their masterpieces comprise a soundtrack for so many of our lives.

We'll learn about their climb to fame, including successes, flops, clashes and their ultimate reunion. The stories behind the music and lyrics will elevate us to a higher appreciation of these delightful, almost immortal artists.

What goes through the minds of such gifted people as they put together so many classics?

We will do our best to answer that question.

Please join Harry Karp for this class which will surely put both a smile in your heart and a tap in your foot.
