Autobiography vs. Memoir

- Autobiography focuses on the life and times of the writer. It’s the facts about and the history of the writer.

- Memoir has a narrower, more intimate focus on the writer’s memories, feelings, and emotions. It focuses instead on reminiscences and relationships, emotional interiority rather than a timeline of the writer’s life.