INTERESTING JEWISH CUSTOMS FROM AROUND THE GLOBE

Jews come in so many flavors!!! Our exile has led us throughout the world. The downside of that, has been the epoch wandering, persecuted Jew. The upside has been absorbing ideas and friendships from our host nations. Join us for a new class exploring the many pieces of the Jewish puzzle from all over the world.

Tuesdays, January 4 through January 25

CONTROVERSIAL JEWS - VERY!!!

Jews can be movers and shakers. However, not necessarily is that a good thing. It could take generations to figure it out. Finally, here is a class to tackle some of those men and women. Maybe you will like them, abhor them, or even admire them for their ingenuity, albeit if unsavory-or worse. Examples: Rabbi Meir Kahana, Emma Goldman, Leon Trotsky, Rabbi Jacob Einhorn, Judah Benjamin, Lillian Wald and Miriam bas Bilga. Class comes with Roloids and Pepto-Bismol.

Tuesdays, February 1 through February 22

"JEWISH" THEMED MOVIES - BUT WERE THEY?

Once we define what Jewish means for a film, we can take out our spyglass and analyze. We all have our own picks for "Jewish" movies. They may make us feel good for their representation of Jews, Judaism and immigrant experience. Yet, scholars and critics have pointed out which ones have been a service or disservice or have simply been uninformed, regarding the JEWS. Here's a list of our samples, but I'm sure others will sneak in: Goodbye Columbus, The Chosen, Hester Street, Lies My Father Told Me, Marjorie Morningstar, Gentleman's Agreement and The Frisco Kid. Bring an open mind for a fresh look. Opinions welcome. (Wouldn't be fun otherwise).

Tuesdays, March 1 through March 22

MASTER MUSICIANS

Let's learn about the lives of some of our greatest musicians along with enjoying their music. Jascha Heifetz, Vladimir Horowitz, Kenny G, Karl and Vally Weigl, Yehudi Menuhin and from way back in our history. Serach the daughter of Asher. As you can see, this will be a mostly classical music focus. Notwithstanding Serach and Kenny will play a different beat for us. Special appearance by Fanny Mendelssohn likely. Plan to learn, listen and unwind in this course.

Tuesdays, March 29 through April 19
