

The Jewish Library of Baltimore And Northwest Neighbors Connecting Invites the Community to Holocaust Remembrance Day Author Event

The Jewish Library of Baltimore
An agency of The Associated

Tuesday, April 14th
2:00pm – 3:30pm

In her captivating memoir, The Politzer Saga, Linda Ambrus Broenniman embarks on a profound exploration fueled by the contents of a mysterious box recovered from the remnants of a devastating fire. Unveiling a shocking secret, Broenniman unravels her hidden Jewish heritage concealed within her Catholic upbringing and pieces together the remarkable story of eight generations of her ancestors – the Politzer family. Find more information at www.politzersaga.com

Linda Ambrus Broenniman

Linda will share the story of her parents: her father, a Jewish Holocaust survivor, and her Catholic mother, honored as a Righteous Gentile for risking her life to hide and save Jews – including Linda's father and grandmother. Jessica Fink, Executive Director of the Jewish Library of Baltimore, will moderate.

"I hardly know of any non-fiction sagas to better exemplify Hungarian Jewish fate of the past 300 years...All that fantastic talent, diligence and readiness to act for and during the birth of modern Hungary."

– Andras Gyekiczki, Hungarian lawyer & sociologist

"A rare piece of historical masterwork..."

– The Bookish Historian

"Spellbinding. Beautifully crafted. [The author] makes her family live again."

– Frank Shaeffer, In Conversation Podcast

Free and Open to the Public. For Reservations Contact: Anne Shimanovich at NNC@chaibaltimore.org

Myerberg Center
3101 Fallstaff Road
Baltimore, Maryland